

Global Forum on Urban and Regional

RESILIENCE

FALL 2017 UPCOMING EVENT SCHEDULE

November 13th – 3:30 PM | Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience | Kent Square Dr. Andy Scerri | Assistant Professor of Political Science, Virginia Tech

Title: “Taking Sustainability Seriously in the Piedmont Sprawl Belt?”

November 16th – 3:30 PM | Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience | Kent Square Michael Vadman | PhD Student in Department of Geosciences and Global Forum, Virginia Tech

Title: “Looking for Off-Fault Deformation and Measuring Strain Accumulation During the Past ~70 years on a Portion of the Locked San Andreas Fault”

Dan Simundza

Simone Franzi

November 29th – 3:30 PM | Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience | Kent Square Dr. Dan Simundza & Simone Franzi | Research Scientist at the Global Forum/PhD Student, PGG, Virginia Tech

Title: “Mapping Innovation Networks in the Financial Industry: Geographies of Blockchain Consortia”

December 7th – 3:30 PM | Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience | Kent Square Dr. Shannon Bell | Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Virginia Tech

Title: “Cultural Manipulation, Friends of Coal, and the Socially Constructed Barriers to a Resilient Economy in Central Appalachia”

Location:

All remaining events will be held at the Global Forum for Urban and Regional Resilience
250 S. Main Street; Suite 312 – Kent Square Building

Questions? – Email: jennlaw@vt.edu | Phone: 540-213-4458