

Nicolas Waingortin, an undergraduate student working with David Bieri was invited to attend a reception for the Vice-President of Argentina, Gabriela Michetti (top photo) at the Embassy of Argentina in Washington DC on February 3rd. Other attendees included ambassadors from various countries in the Americas along with representatives from the World Bank, International Monetary Fund, and the Organization of American States.

Nicolas joined a delegation composed of 12 Argentinian Fulbright scholars and two coordinators from Virginia Tech. They all enjoyed having the opportunity to engage in conversations with the Vice-President and the ambassador of Argentina to the United States Martin Lousteau (bottom right photo), network with professionals, and look forward to working for the continuation of prosperous relationships between the countries during the upcoming years. Nicolas is an undergraduate student working on a special project with Dr. David Bieri.
